課程名稱(英文)	Survey of Literary/Cultural Theories II
學分	3
課程目標	As a survey, the goal of this course is to provide a general introduction to the field of contemporary literary and cultural theory. We will not study any author or work in depth, but we will build up a critical vocabulary that can support more advanced and specialized studies.
授	This course focuses on the relationship of literature and culture to the history

課 內 容	of liberal humanism. We will read theoretical and cultural texts together, exploring constitutive categories of liberal thought such as property, happiness, freedom, intimacy, law, incarceration, progress, transparency, rights. These categories are both ensconced in and troubled by the canons, as well as other less institutionalized cultural forms. We will focus on texts that synthetically draw on Marxism, critical race studies, postcolonial studies, feminism, queer and trans studies. Requirements include weekly reading responses on assigned topics, oral presentations, and a final paper or project.
